On this Veterans Day, we come together as one nation to honor the heroes who have served and continue to serve the United States of America.
Today we pause to reflect the extraordinary courage, sacrifice and devotion of our veterans. The men and women who have stood in defense of our freedom.
To every veteran who has worn the uniform, we thank you. You left the comfort of home, answered the call of duty, and gave of yourself so that others could live in peace.
Your service has strengthened our nation, safeguarded our liberties, and upheld the values that define us as Americans.
Each of you carries a story of resilience and honor, stories written through duty, sacrifice and brotherhood. Together, those stories form the fabric of our great nation, a living testament to the spirit of patriotism that endures through generations.
To all who have served, we salute you.
We are forever grateful for your bravery, for your strength and your love for our nation.
May we all strive to live in a way that honors your sacrifice, not just today, but every single day.
Happy Veterans Day and may God bless our Veterans and their families and the United States of America.
Hoorah! -Mayor Rob Medina

SBMA November 11th Speaker: You

This month our guest speaker is YOU!

Please step up for a minute and share something you are grateful for.

We don't have to just talk shop. Where have you been seeing the hand of God?

Have you been experiencing victory in your health, family, career, or calling?

We will also be gathering around you to encourage your faith in the areas that are the battlegrounds.

We love you and we hope to hear from you at this month's gathering.
